National Committee Meets to Formally Decide on Convention City

Vote Will be Taken Today; Cleveland Probably Will be Chosen

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE
WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Selection of Cleveland for the 1924 Republican convention was favored by administration leaders who were forehanded today at the opening session of the Republican National Committee. With the Cleveland movement in open evidence, representatives of Des Moines and San Francisco went through the formalities of presenting invitations, but another indication of the expected result was their added invitation for the 1928 Republican gathering.

The vote on the convention city went over until tomorrow, together with other questions before the committee. June 10 was regarded generally as the probable date for the 1924 gathering.

While the committee was engaged largely on routine business today, underground the tide of the campaign was flowing with political strategy and plans of the 1924
campaign under discussion on all sides. Mingling among the committee members was Frank H.
Hitchcock, campaign manager for Senator Hiram Johnson, while William M. Butler, attended the meeting as the Massachusetts representative.

The Virginia member, C. Bascom Stemp, Secretary to the President, was represented by proxy.

CALIFORNIA COLD WAVE LETTING UP

San Joaquin Orange Crop Reported Suffering From Frost; Rain Needed

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 11.—The cold snap that has settled
over Northern and Central California and parts of Southern California in the past four days showed signs of moderation tonight, according to the United States Weather Bureau here.

While sections of the Middle West, which usually suffer freezing temperatures at this time of year, are reported enjoying mild weather, the State has experienced killing frosts, particularly in the San Joaquin Valley.

Heavy frosts were experienced early this morning and yesterday morning, but indications were
that the weather would be mild today. Only light frosts would be felt today, according to the bureau.

INSURGENTS STUBBORN

Continue Senate
Deadlock

Three More Ballots Fail to Elect Head of Commerce
Committee

Republican Leaders Believe Impasse Will be Ended
Before Long

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Three more ballots today in the election of a chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission, leader of the insurgent group.

After the Senate adjourned there were some informal negotiations
looking to an ending of the tie-up, but apparently they were without success. Some of the insurgents said their group would stand pat and should not enter into any agreement under which Senator Cummins of Iowa would be relieved of the office of President pro tempore of the Senate, but returned as chairman of the committee.

Emphasizing that they had no objection to Mr. Cummins remaining as President pro tem, the insurgents declared they were interested wholly in revision if not repeal of the Transportation Act,
and they desired to see at the head of the committee which handles railroad legislation a Senator in sympathy with their views.

ALIGNMENT UNALTERED
In the voting today the line-up was practically the same as on yesterday, with the Democrats solidly supporting Senator Smith of South Carolina for the committee chairmanship, and Senators Brookhart of Iowa, Frazier of Idaho, North Dakota, and Harlan of Nebraska, Republicans, and Johnson of Minnesota, Farmer-Labor, voting for La Follette.

Smith received forty-one votes on the first and second ballots today—three short of a necessary majority—while on the third ballot he was short, with thirty-nine votes. Smith received thirty-nine votes on each ballot.

While the fight goes on in the Senate, the Interstate Commerce Committee, in the view of Senators Cummins and Johnson, is understandably and consequently unable to function. This view is disputed by some other Senators, but in any event there has been no effort to get the committee together to act on nominations of members of the Interstate Commerce Commission and other matters which have been referred to it by the Senate.

EXPECT END SOON
Since the insurgents want action on railroad legislation, some Republican leaders do not believe they will continue their fight for a long period. A way out of the deadlock is expected by these leaders to be found, but they are making no suggestions as to the form
it is likely to take.

The Senate will meet again at noon tomorrow and will resume
the balloting during its session, conducting meantime such other business as may be brought before it, such as the introduction of bills and resolutions.

The House continued in recess
today while finishing touches were put on the assignments of Republicans and Democrats to various standing committees.

Democrats of the House will hold a caucus tomorrow to pass on the committee slates prepared by their members of the Ways and Means Committee.

MEXICAN REBELS ON MARCH FROM TEPEC TO SONORA

Insurgents Seize Towns En Route;
Obregon Reported in Complete Control of Situation

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]
NOGALES (Ariz.), Dec. 11.—More than 2000 armed insurgents are marching from Tepic, now in the hands of the rebels, with the intention of penetrating Sinaloa and taking that State and Sonora, according to reports received here tonight.

The invaders are taking control of all towns and cities in the line of march and are moving with great rapidity, late advices stated. They are reported to be under the leadership of Gen. M.
M. Diegues, Marcario Gaxiola and Rafael Buena. The rebel-ling forces, the advices declare, include the Twenty-fourth Regiment, one of the crack outfits of the Mexican army, which recently revolted.

Advices today reported a strengthening of Federal forces on the west coast of Mexico under the command of Gen. Jesus Ferreira, military commander of Sinaloa, and strategic moves by the government in various parts of the republic to snuff out the rebellion.

The Mexican government was reported in advices received here
today to be in complete control of the situation in the Republic.
Renewed pledges by adherents of military organizations and decision by the rank and file of the army that they will remain loyal evidently were followed by a general tightening of lines to suppress the revolt.

[ENROUTE DISPATCH]
MONTEREY, Dec. 11.—Federal troops which President Obregon has thrown to the east of Mexico City to hold up the advance of the Vera Cruz rebel army while he disposes of the Estrada rebel advance from the south, seem to have been penetrated and outflanked by Gen. Sanchez.

The De la Huerta troops under Sanchez are reported to have crossed from Vera Cruz into the adjacent State of Puebla.

Latest dispatches from Mexico City today indicated alarm over the approach of the rebels to Nacozari in the State of Tamaulipas.
Nacozari is the center of the huge supply depot which has been building up with light, power and water.

CENSORSHIP TIGHTENED
The censorship at Mexico City
today shortly before noon,
and virtually nothing has been received from the Capital since that time.

President Obregon was reported
today at Irapuato, where the Federal cavalry is being concentrated.
It is said, for the dash against the left flank of Estrada. Rebels are reported as occupying, however, in the States of Aguascalientes and Guanajuato, in which State Irapuato is located.

The President continues to draw loyal forces out of North Mexico for his double-headed task in the south. Gen. Eugenio Martinez, commander of the North Mexico military zone left Chihuahua City today with about 500 soldiers of the Fifth Battalion, ostensibly to engage Estrada in Jalisco. A smaller portion of the Fifth Battalion has been ordered to Oajaca,
with troops of the Twenty-sixth cavalry. Just what is happening in Oajaca is not clear.

Gen. J. Gonzalez Escobar, commander of the military department of the State of Durango and Coahuila, has left Torreon with 2000
troops for an unknown destination.

Telegraphic communication between Juarez and Mexico City, which had been interrupted in Durango, however, has been restored. Obregon leaders take this as evidence that Federal troops have regained control of the route.

The danger spot north of Mexico City, where De la Huerta has been exceedingly strong.

EXODUS CONTINUES
The exodus of upper class Mexicans from the Capital continues.

DRAMATIC STARS IN CLASH

Titled English Actress and Italian Princess to Battle
For Madonna Role in "The Miracle"

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—A clash between two titled stars of the stage which will surpass in magnitude the famous Mary Garden-Lina Cavallieri controversy of twenty years ago, was predicted on Broadway tonight with the arrival of Princess Norina Marchese of Italy, to claim the role of Madonna in "The Miracle," for which Mrs. Duff Cooper, the former Lady Diana Manners, already is rehearsing.

"Of course I shall play the Madonna on the opening night," said
the princess, with determination.
"I am used to all the regular performances. I was engaged by Max Reinhardt, for whom I created the role when "The Miracle" was first staged in London in 1912. Mr.
Reinhardt imported me to come to New York for the revival.

"The role of Madonna was created for me, and God inspired me to interpret it. It is my life.
Without me "The Miracle" would fail. It is fate."

But Morris Gest, who is financing the production of "The Miracle"
in New York, declared he had engaged Lady Diana for the role and meant to keep her.

GEST AT PIER
He was at the pier to greet the princess, but the Italian beauty
did not see him.

Mary Garden was at the pier too. She accosted Mr. Gest thus:
"Well, Morris, I see they've got the big question fixed up. You are with me long, long ago."

And Mary laughed. She referred to the time when both she and only in New York city.

COOLIDGE APPROVES PLAN FOR INQUIRY IN GERMANY

President Says Government Favors
American Experts Accepting Reparation Body's Bid

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—President Coolidge formally opened the way today to co-operation by American economic experts in the double inquiry proposed by the Reparations Commission into Germany's financial situation. A formal White House statement said the Washington government would "view with favor the acceptance by American experts" of an invitation to sit upon the inquiry committees.

The plan already has been approved by all the Allied governments and by Germany, a factor considered of major importance
inasmuch as a complete agreement
among the Allies as to the method of employing American aid in the reparation situation has long been regarded by Washington officials as essential if such assistance was to be extended. The unanimity attained by the powers on the question after many months of discussion and many failures, in the opinion of President Coolidge, is an important and significant development.

STATEMENT ISSUED
The decision of the American government in the matter was set forth in the White House statement as follows:
"The government has been informed that the Reparations Commission is considering the establishment of two expert committees,
one to consider the means of balancing the budget of Germany and the measures to be taken to stabilize her currency; the other to take up the question of the capital which has been removed from Germany."

The inquiry of the first committee would comprehend all the conditions to be realized and the task of making assignments and the results desired. All the representative of the governments of the commission have expressed the desire to have American experts on the two committees. It is understood that the government of the United States is not in a position to be represented on these committees and recognition of an American expert will be extended directly by the Reparations Commission.

VIEWED WITH FAVOR
This government believes that the proposed inquiry will be of great value and in view of its direct interest as a creditor and of the importance of the economic recuperation in Europe, it would view with favor the acceptance by American experts of such an invitation.

The immediate proposal before the Reparations Commission has been made by the French delegate and president of the commission, and has the support, it is understood, of all the Allied governments. The British government has informed this government of its desire that American experts should participate in the inquiry.

"The German government also has brought this matter to the attention of this government, stating that it would be much appreciated if an American expert would participate in the work of the first committee as above proposed.
The House continues today in important progress could be made toward the solution of the problem underlying economic recovery."

In making the inquiry effective,

TAX CUT BILL TO BE PUSHED

House Committee Promises to Give Plan Prompt Consideration; Measure Favored

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Definite assurance that tax reduction legislation will be considered promptly by the House Ways and Means Committee was given tonight by Representative Green of Iowa, professive chairman, after a conference with Republican members of the committee.

Mr. Green said he expected to call the committee together Monday to take up the draft of the bill submitted by the Treasury, and "thereafter proceed with the work of revision as rapidly as is consistent with accuracy and thorough consideration."

"It is obvious," the statement
continued, "that so great a task
as is now presented to the committee cannot be disposed of summarily but it should also be borne in mind that the income taxes affected by the proposed measure will not be paid until 1925."

CARE MUST BE TAKEN
"Some time necessarily will elapse before the committee can even complete an examination and consideration of the measure, and features alone and the whole bill must be revised with great care, but there will be no unnecessary delay."

ACT AMENDMENT SOUGHT
WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—A bill to amend the Transportation Act to admit a greater charge for a short haul than for a long haul was introduced today by Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho.

PIPAL RESIGNS AS GRID COACH

AS GRID COACH

Veteran Oxy Mentor to Give Up Tanbark Duties

Will Devote Time to Track and Gym Classes

No Successor to be Named at This Time

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—(By A. P. Night Wire) Completing three years' service as coach of football and track at Occidental College since the war, Joseph Pipal, one of the oldest and most experienced mentors in the athletic world, last night announced his retirement from active grid coaching, his entire time from now on to be spent with track and the physical education department of the Eagle Rock institution.

Coach Pipal and Mrs. Pipal were last night hosts to the Occidental football team in a banquet which honored the men for their performance of the past season. After the dinner Coach Pipal announced that he had coached the gridiron athletes for the last time and that his work now lay with the track squad and the physical education department, of which he is to be the head.

President R. D. Bird, in a statement last night, said that it was the wish of the college authorities that the corrective side of physical education be more emphasized, and with this view in mind Mr. Pipal had been made head of the department. "No successor has been picked as yet," said President Bird, "and we are in no haste to make a selection. Naturally we are desirous of securing the best man possible and there is nothing to be gained by rushing the decision."

President Bird emphatically denied that any offer had been made to any coach. "There have been rumors to the effect that Otto Krum of the University of Hawaii was approached. Such reports are without foundation. No one has been offered the job."

After the track season in the spring Coach Pipal will take a group of Tiger stars to the Pennsylvania relays. He will stay during the summer to study physical education methods of the various institutions.

DATE IS SET FOR ANNUAL TRACKFEST

(By A. P. Night Wire) SPOKANE (Wash.) Dec. 11.—The annual track meet of the Columbia Valley intercollegiate conference, an organization of smaller colleges and universities of the Columbia Valley, will be held here on May 17. It was announced today and the conference championship tennis meet will be held here the preceding day.

REEVES, COLIMA IN DRAW

Result Surprises Fans; Gordon Trims Frankie Grandetta in Semi-wind-up; Papke Loses

Bert Colima, Pacific Coast middleweight champion, lost a little of his prestige last night at Vernon when Jack Reeves held him to a draw decision. Reeves had a slight advantage in weight, but also showed an ability to absorb as well as give punishment.

Colima won the first round by virtue of a last-minute mix-up. The second was even, and Colima had a slight shade in the third, which was tame. The last round was even.

Abie Gordon took Frankie Grandetta's swag and returned it plus a few in the semi-wind-up winning a decision by a slight margin. They boxed evenly in the first round, but the second went to Grandetta, who floored Able as the going sounded. Gordon came back in the third, and staggered Grandetta by effective use of his right, and knocked Grandetta down for no count in the fourth.

Joe Schlocker, with half the newsboys of Los Angeles howling their heads off from the gallery, won the special event from Young Papke, knocking him down in the second and third periods. Papke's brilliant finish couldn't overcome Schlocker's lead.

After two very unsatisfactory bouts in which George Siddons won an unpopular but just decision over Johnny McManus and Johnny Reno, who showed nothing, the fans were given a treat by Pico Ramble and Joe Pimental, who battled to a good draw. Both boys were at it hard from go to gong.

Jimmy Brown substituted for Kid Sullivan in the fourth bout, but wished he hadn't, as Young Jackson gave him a systematic beating.

PLAN CLASS LUNCHEON

The woman's group of the College of Commerce at the University of Southern California will give a luncheon tomorrow at the Den on West Jefferson street. The speaker of the day will be Miss Brinkley of the Bank of America. Other special guests will be Miss Gloria Harrison of Edwards & Co., and Miss Florence Banks of the Los Angeles Soap Company.

Dink Templeton to Welcome Star Athlete

HARTRANFT TO AID STANFORD

Weight Star Will Return to Cardinals

Is Intercollegiate Champ in Discus Throw

Will Put Big Crimp in Bears' Field Chances

The return of Glenn "Tiny" Hartranft, bulky Stanford University track star, to the Cardinal institution, not only brings a great deal of joy to Coach "Dink" Templeton and supporters of the Palo Alto school, but also makes the 1924 track aggregation from "The Farm" one of the best on the Coast. Although Hartranft is not registered as yet, reliable information is to the effect that he will enroll immediately after the holidays, which marks the opening of the new quarter at Stanford.

"Tiny," although possessing a build that would make the average longshoreman turn green with envy, is never-the-less one of the best sprint stars on the Coast. Of course, his work in the weights and discus, and his big fellow does the century in ten flat, something of an achievement for any man, he is little or large.

HELPED THE BEARS
It was two years ago that the big blond giant did his stuff for Stanford, his absence from school last season greatly handicapping the Cards. In 1922 the result of the Stanford-California meet was a 65½-to-65½ tie, the performance of Hartranft accounting for eleven of the Palo Alto team's points. He took first place in the shot and discus, establishing a new California-Stanford record for the latter event with a heave of 127 feet. His third place in the hundred added an extra point. With "Tiny" off the team last year the Bears made a killing, cleaning up completely in the field events. It will be a different story this season.

Hartranft holds the American Intercollegiate record in the shotput, having won that event and the discus at the I.C.A. meet two years ago. The big fellow was married last week to Miss Ruth Crawford of Anaheim.

Coach Templeton is not a bit gloomy about his track prospects this season, and his charges have been working out some of late, the fall track meet having been run off last Saturday.

Campbell and Hale are the best bets for the hundred and furlong, both having run last year. Gasper and Miller are also out.

VAN JUAH BACK
Capt. Van Judah will be back again for the quarter, and will have plenty of help from Sherman, Storey, Nixon and Coveley, the last-named chap being a former Hollywood High School star.

Daly, Richardson, Dole, McIntosh and Swayne are listed among the half-milers, with the first two being probably the most promising. Most of the above-named athletes can do their race in 2m. 14 flat.

Lelaitner and our old friend from Lincoln, Bolos, will run the low and high hurdles. Bolos is one of the best men on the Coast, especially in the high. Wells, a transfer, is also eligible.

Arthur and Richards, old reliable in the weights, will assist Hartranft, and Scotchy Campbell and Wankowski are also expected to lend their assistance. Farish does the javelin throwing.

The rest of the team has good men, and Templeton hopes for a reversal of last year's California-Stanford meet, especially with the reliable Hartranft once more in the fold.

EAST-WEST LACROSSE MATCH IS PLANNED

Following closely on the organization of two teams of young ladies, who are now actively playing the Canadian national game of lacrosse, the Canadian Tourists' Society are forming up two teams of lacrosse players, to play a game in about seven weeks, time East vs. West, and negotiations are now being made with several stadiums and grounds in and around Los Angeles to stage both the men's and women's games at the same time. Many former expert lacrosse players now in California, and all who want a chance to take part in the first game are asked to write to J. Arthur Hooper, honorable secretary, Canadian Tourists' Society (lacrosse section), 1748 Ocean Avenue, Santa Monica, with age and experience at game. The first meeting of the men interested will take place Saturday evening next, the 15th inst., at the Ocean Park Auditorium, when the players will be introduced to the big tourist enthusiasm, which will be then in session.

Birmingham (Ala.) A.C. will hold their thirteenth annual road race the 15th inst.

VOTE A TIE FOR OXY GRID CHIEF

At a banquet given last night by Coach and Mrs. Joseph Pipal for the 1923 Occidental football varsity a vote was taken for next year's captain, which resulted in a tie between Halfback Ebers and Fullback Ridderhoff. One letter man was not present, and his vote will decide the question.

gave no indication of belligerence. The club owners decided to give personal recognition to Babe Ruth of the Yankees and George Sisler of the Browns for their achievements as individual stars in 1922 and 1923. In addition to having their names inscribed on the $100,000 monument to be erected by the league in Potomac Park in Washington, Ruth and Sisler will be given a diploma of honor and also will be presented with a miniature of the monument.

John J. Evers, the keystone of the Tinker-to-Evers-to-Chance, double play combination in the league for the coming season, was winning pennants around 1906, today signed as coach with Chicago, will manage the Chicago White Sox next season.

EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH
CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Western League owners adjourned their annual meeting at 5 o'clock this afternoon until Wednesday. The meetings are being held at the Congress Hotel.

Although President Al Tarnsey told reporters at the meeting that nothing but routine business had been done and that the make-up of the league for the coming season had not been discussed, it was learned from another source that the subject was discussed at length. In fact, it was said the club owners fought all afternoon over the disposal of the Sioux City franchise. There are two cities in the field for the Sioux City franchise, Lincoln, Neb., is one of them. Nobody was willing to state what other city was after it.

BIG LIST FOR LONG RUN

Large Number of Entries for First Annual A.A.U. Cross Country Race at Occidental

Unless all advance indications go wrong at the last moment Saturday's first annual A.A.U. cross-country run to be staged at Patterson Field is going to be a whale of a success. Manager Fred Johnson is receiving entries daily at Hollywood High School and right now he has no less than fifteen institutions represented.

U.R.C., Pomona, Occidental, Redlands, Southern Branch, the Los Angeles Athletic Club and California Tech have all entered teams and the competition in this open event promises to be especially keen. This is the first time in many years that the Trojans have had enough long-winded gent to get up a team and there is considerable enthusiasm over the race.

As a special feature of the afternoon's entertainment the eight-man novice relay teams from Hollywood, Lincoln and L. A. High will run an exhibition race at 2:50 o'clock. These teams ran last week, the Lincoln outfit finishing first.

One entry from Santa Paula is already listed. He is Leslie Taylor and will run in the class two race, this being for schools with enrollment less than 1200. The Bay and Central leagues will also send teams.

Trophies have been donated by T. V. Allen's, R. H. Dyas's and Tuttle-Lyon's. There will be a trophy for each winning team in each class, and the first five men in each race will get medals.

There Is, Also, a Non-Detonating Gasoline

Note this important difference in the way gasoline explodes. One kind explodes instantaneously—detonates.

It depends upon a single crash to pound the piston down.

Compression is limited by the tendency of such gasoline to explode prematurely. This means loss of power and efficiency.

It means increased vibration also, thus more wear and tear. Some explosives would work this way on guns, to the ruin of the weapons.

The prolonged thrust

Union Gasoline explodes in a different way—like smokeless powder in big guns—with a progressive and sustained explosion—non-detonating.

It thrusts the piston down with a powerful but continuous impulse.

This permits higher compression, for, as authorities know, compression is limited by the tendency of a gasoline to detonate.

So more power and higher efficiency result from Union Non-Detonating Gasoline. Smokeless powder is used in big guns because it doesn't detonate and its better power carries the projectiles farther.

Snap In The Pickup
This increased smoother power in motors means more speed and a stronger rush in the pickup.

You find more power on the hills—a new "kick"—with no "knocking" due to gasoline.

The sustained impulse reduces vibration, which means less wear and tear.

And the higher, all-round efficiency means increased fuel economy.

So Union Non-Detonating Gasoline allows your car in several desirable and important ways.

UNIVERSITY POLO TEAM SHOWS CLASS

TUCSON (Ariz.) Dec. 11.—The University of Arizona polo team showed class in its match with the team from Fort Bliss, the victors ending with a tie of 4-4.

The Arizona team included Rucker, and Capt. Cole and winner, winners of last season's cup at the San Mateo Cavalry tournament. The Arizona team included Rucker, and Capt. Cole and winner, winners of last season's cup at the San Mateo Cavalry tournament.

John J. McGraw's salary as manager of the New York Giants is estimated at $50,000 a year.

There Is, Also, a Non-Detonating Gasoline

It depends upon a single crash to pound the piston down.

Compression is limited by the tendency of such gasoline to explode prematurely. This means loss of power and efficiency.

It means increased vibration also, thus more wear and tear. Some explosives would work this way on guns, to the ruin of the weapons.

The prolonged thrust

Union Gasoline explodes in a different way—like smokeless powder in big guns—with a progressive and sustained explosion—non-detonating.

It thrusts the piston down with a powerful but continuous impulse.

This permits higher compression, for, as authorities know, compression is limited by the tendency of a gasoline to detonate.

So more power and higher efficiency result from Union Non-Detonating Gasoline. Smokeless powder is used in big guns because it doesn't detonate and its better power carries the projectiles farther.

Snap In The Pickup

This increased smoother power in motors means more speed and a stronger rush in the pickup.

You find more power on the hills—a new "kick"—with no "knocking" due to gasoline.

The sustained impulse reduces vibration, which means less wear and tear.

And the higher, all-round efficiency means increased fuel economy.

So Union Non-Detonating Gasoline allows your car in several desirable and important ways.

Union is always uniform. It doesn't deteriorate, thus doesn't deteriorate in storage. As the power that is put into it at the Union plant is delivered when you want it in your car.

PLAN ZEV-EPINARD RACE

Series of Matches Being Arranged for Next Summer
by Major Belmont at New York

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—A match race or series of races between Epineard, the French champion 3-year-old and Zev, the American champion, to be run next summer or early in the fall, is virtually assured as the result of a conference today among Pierre Wertheimer, owner of Epineard; Harry F. Sinclair, owner of Zev, and Maj. August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey club.

Whether the race of races will be run in this country, or in France, was not decided, and will not be, it was stated, until American and French public opinion has been sounded.

"I found Mr. Sinclair as desirous as I for a meeting between our thoroughbreds," stated the Frenchman. "Although no contracts were involved, and the place and details of the match remain undecided, I can say with reasonable certainty that the two great horses
will meet before next October."

Mr. Sinclair who departs tonight for Denver agreed to leave Zev's case in the hands of Mr. Belmont, and there is plenty of time between now and the J.P.A. racing season in which to arrange the place and conditions of the competition.

It is thought possible that in the event a race is arranged in this country, the international challenge cup, won by Zev last fall
in his memorial match with Papyrus, English Derby winner, will be offered for a Zev-Epineard match.

TIJUANA RESULTS

First race, five and one-half furlongs—
(Thompson) won; Last Tipster (Wilson) second;
Dewey (K. Jones) third. Time 1:08.

Griffin Slated to Box MacLean in Feature Go

Dandy Dick Griffin, classy Fort Worth bantam, and Stewart Mac-Lean from St. Paul, a protégé of Mike Collins, will box the main event at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium Friday night.

Griffin has never failed to put up a good scrap in his many starts
here, and MacLean established himself with the local fans when in his initial appearance here he earned a verdict over California Joe Lynch.

It has been announced by Manager Si Masters that Friday night is to be dedicated to De Witt Van Court, the "old head" of the boxing game in California. In that many of Van Court's friends are expected to be on hand, and with an unusually strong bill on tap, Masters has prepared to handle
a capacity crowd.

Frankie Grandetta, the Portland
shelk, and Frankie Dolan, a Hollywood favorite, are programmed to mix at 115 pounds in the semi-wind-up.

Joe Medina and Frankie Canner will box the special event. This pair of lightweight should unfurl one of the best scraps of the evening.

Other bouts: Alec Maurice vs.
Hank Garton, 145 pounds; Ray Merrell vs. Jack Ryshall, 125 pounds; Eddie McAllister vs. Sidney White, 115 pounds; Eddie White vs. Bobby Gray, 125
pounds.

VANDALS MAPPING OUT
TOUGH HOOP SCHEDULE

(SPECIAL DISPATCH)

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, MOR-
COW, Dec. 11.—Fifteen preseason games have been scheduled during the Christmas holidays for the Idaho basketball squad in order to whip into shape Coach David Mac-Millan's dark-horse Vandals. Beginning the 19th inst. at Lewiston
the harrowing tour will swing
by way of Spokane to Northern Idaho and back through Eastern Washington to finish at Portlath,
January 5.

This vacation trip will enable Coach MacMillan to estimate better the strength of his squad and cover the weaknesses left by the loss of practically all the last year's championship team. Of the twenty men turning out regularly, twelve will make this trip, but the percentage of this squad will not be announced until the day before departure.

The large proportion of new material in the Vandal team makes these practice games especially valuable to experience the men and test them out.

Arizona Fans Pleased With Football Team

(SPECIAL DISPATCH)

TUCSON (Ariz.) Dec. 11.—With the closing of the season has been analysis of the work of the football team of the University of Arizona, which after a losing streak, had been pronounced far from good this year. There even was call from some quarters for a change of coaches. In the summing up, the team now is declared to have been a good one and the coaching of Mc-Kale to have been of modern sort and effective. Nine games were played, with six won and three lost, while the gross score was 162 for the university and 127 for the combined opponents.

This score was fattened by big figures gained in the contests
against the freshmen and Phoenix Indian School, as well as by the 29 to 6 secured in the game against Santa Clara. On the other side was the crushing defeat by University of Southern California, 49 to 6.

But the rest of the games were won or lost by a small margin. Possibly the hardest contest was that with Phoenix Junior College, won,
by 19 to 13, or that with the Texas Miners, 12 to 7, while the score of 29 to 23 by which a game was lost to St. Mary's is considered creditable. New Mexico University was taken in by 14 to 7.

Swimming is the leading sport of the Hawaiian Islands, followed by tennis, golf, polo, football, basketball, volleyball and baseball.

(SPECIAL DISPATCH)

NEW ORLEANS (La.) Dec. 11.—
"Billie" Pacham, match-maker
for the southern boat racing world, is leaving Friday for a Northern trip to investigate the possibilities of a spring race meet in this city.
The South has been bitten by the speed-boat racing bug. Last February this city staged the greatest meeting of the kind ever held in the South, and one of the biggest ever held in this country. Its success has awakened a world of enthusiasm for the sport and its example is being followed by other Southern cities. Palm Beach, Fla., has scheduled a speed regatta for Washington's Birthday and the preceding day.

Speed merchants from New York, from the Mid-West and South will be entered there—Miami, Fla., is hooking up for a series of special events for March 7th and 8th, and Parham is considering April dates for the Crescent City.
He will visit Peoria, Ill., where the helmsmen of the hydron congregate on Dec. 14th and possibly visit New York City, January 4th to 12th, where, at the National Motor Boat show, the racing men of the country will assemble to discuss these three prospect Southern schedule of the coming season.

FIGURES REFUTE JOHNSON CLAIM

Present Aid to State's Deaf and Blind Greatest Ever

Attack on Richardson Fails
When Record is Offered

Printer, Backing Coolidge, Brands Senator Faker

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH) SACRAMENTO, Dec. 11.—Attacks by Hiram W. Johnson on Gov. Richardson's alleged failure to support the State deaf and blind were answered yesterday by State Printer Frank J. Smith, who cited facts and figures to show that the appropriation for deaf and blind in 1923 amounted to $468,- 414, more than twice the sum of $230,075 appropriated by Johnson
as Governor in 1911.

Smith's statement came in response to queries as to why he had announced himself in support of Calvin Coolidge for re-election and not given his support to Johnson.
He said:
"I have been asked why I announced myself in favor of Calvin
S. Coolidge for President.
"One of my reasons for so doing is because I think Hiram Johnson is one of the greatest 'humanitarian bunco artists' of the age.
Even in his own State he is a re-ciding political figure, a fact gloomily admitted by himself in his mournful letters.
"He has gone up and down the State talking about what Gov.
Richardson has neglected to do for the deaf and blind.
"By indirection this would create the impression that Johnson had treated the deaf and blind more magnanimously than did Richardson.
"Facts and figures show that Johnson, during his two terms as Governor, did less for the deaf and blind than did Gov. Stephens or Gov. Richardson.

COLLEGE GIRLS STURDIER NOW

Oberlin Figures Over Years
Show Improvements

New Type of Womanhood Seen in Earlier Years

Greater Strength Found in Physical Education

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
CLEVELAND, Dec. 11.—A more youthful, tall and sturdy college girl has taken the place of the college girl of yesterday, according to a survey made public by Oberlin College, which shows that a distinctly new type of American womanhood is being evolved.
The physical education department of Oberlin was one of the first to offer a course to women and the survey is based upon tabulations of careful tests of 1600
girls over a period of thirty-six years.

The Oberlin freshmen of today
are only slightly over eighteen years of age while her predecessors
of 1886-1903, and 1903-1915
were more than nineteen years of age. But the eighteen-year-old girl of today is two inches taller than the nineteen-year-old girl of yesterday. The girl in the middle period was the plumpest.

The 1923 girl, while four pounds heavier than the girl of the nineties is—possibly owing to her desire to conform to the demand of the materialistic world for slenderness—not quite so heavy as the girl of 1903-1915.

LUNG CAPACITY GROWS
The modern college girl who becomes a champion golfer, runs up tennis scores which make the Tildens look to their laurels, and has ambitions to swim the British Channel, has a lung capacity sixteen cubic inches greater than the girl of the nineties, according to the survey, and her chest expansion is about two inches greater than that of her predecessor.

Modern girls have strong backs, the figures show. Girls in the period between 1886-1903
had a back strength of 119 pounds; those of 1903-1915 had a lifting power of 137.3 pounds, and those of 1915 to 1923 have backs capable of lifting 160.8 pounds.

The girl of 1903 clearly was no such "biker" as is the modern college girl. She had a less lifting power of only 147.9 pounds
as compared with the strength of the leg of the modern co-ed—176 pounds.

POSTURE IS IMPROVED
A strong argument for physical training for women is found in the tables showing the improvement in the physical fitness and increase in the strength of the Oberlin girl after just one year of physical education. In addition to showing a uniform improvement in posture after a year
at the college records for the three periods included in the survey show that the Oberlin girl gains about three pounds during her first year at college.

The girls in each of the three periods made a great gain in lung capacity by the end of the first year, this gain amounting to from ten to nineteen cubic inches. Chest expansion increased correspondingly.

A marked increase in strength results from one year's physical education, according to the tabulations. In every period the students' strength of back, for example, has increased about twenty pounds, the girl of 1923 having a lifting power of 160.8 pounds
when she entered college and 180.4
pounds by the end of her freshman year. All other figures tend to show that the college girl benefits greatly by "gym" work
and supervised athletics.

Child Dies of Shock Trying to Lift Chum

Worcester (Mass.) Dec. 11.—
While trying to lift her playmate,
Dorothy Riordan, 4 years of age,
of Holden, stumbled and fell, dying
three hours later. Associate Medical Examiner Ernst L. Hunt gave the cause of death as "thymic shock," due to overexertion.

Dorothy went to the home next door to play with her little chum.
In trying to lift her, she caught her foot in the edge of the carpet
and both fell. The playmate sprang to her feet and, after waiting for the other to rise, reached down to help her up.

BABBITT BY

hadn't let Dr. Drew know that he was responsible for this tribute. Dr. Drew called him "brother," and shook his hand a great many times.

During the meetings of the Advisory Committee, Babbitt had hinted that he would be charmed to invite Eathorne to dinner, but Eathorne had murmured, "So nice of you—old man, now, almost never go out." Surely Eathorne would not refuse his own pastor. Babbitt said boyishly to Drew:

"Say, doctor, now we've put this over, strikes me it's up to the dominie to blow the three of us to a dinner!"

"Bully! You bet! Delighted!" cried Dr. Drew in his manliest way. (Some one had once told him that he talked like the late President Roosevelt.)

"And, uh, say, doctor, be sure and get Mr. Eathorne to come. I insist on it. It's, uh—I think he sticks around home too much for his own health."

Eathorne came. It was a friendly dinner. Babbitt spoke gracefully of the stabilizing and educational value of bankers to the community. They were, he said, the pastors of the fold of commerce. For the first time Eathorne departed from the topic of Sunday Schools, and asked Babbitt about the progress of his business. Babbitt answered modestly, almost filially.

A few months later, when he had a chance to take part in the Street Traction Company's terminal deal, Babbitt did not care to go to his own bank for a loan. It was rather a quiet sort of deal and, if it had come out, the Public might not have understood. He went to his friend Mr. Eathorne; he was welcomed and received the loan as a private venture; and they both profited in their pleasant new association.

After that, Babbitt went to church regularly except on spring Sunday mornings which were obviously meant for motoring. He announced to Ted, "I tell you, boy, there's no stronger bulwark of sound conservatism than the evangelical church, and no better place to make friends who'll help you to gain your rightful place in the community than in your own church-home!"

CHAPTER XVIII

Though he saw them twice daily, though he knew and amply discussed every detail of their expenditures, yet for weeks together Babbitt was no more conscious of his children than of the buttons on his coat-sleeves. The admiration of Kenneth Escott made him aware of Verona. She had become secretary to Mr. Gruenberg of the Gruenberg Leather Company; she did her work with the thoroughness of a mind which reverses details and never quite understands them; but she was one of the people who give an astutest impression of being on the point of doing something desperate—of leaving a job or a husband—without ever doing it. Babbitt was so hopeful about Escott's hesitant ardors that he became the playful parent. When he returned from the Elita, he peered coyly into the living-room and gurgled, "Has our Kenny been here to-night? He never credited Verona's protest. 'Why, Ken and I are just good friends, and we only talk about ideas. I won't have all this sentimental nonsense, that would spoil everything.'"

It was Ted who most worried Babbitt. With conditions in Latin and English but with a triumphant record in manual training, basketball, and the organization of dances, Ted was struggling through his Senior year in the East Side High School. At home he was interested only when he was asked to trace some subtle ill in the ignition system of the car. He repeated to his tut-tutting father that he did not wish to go to college or law-school, and Babbitt was equally disturbed by this "shiftlessness" and by Ted's relations with Eunice Littlefield, next door.

Though she was the daughter of Howard Littlefield, a unit wrought-iron fact-mill, that horse-faced priest of private ownership, Eunice was a midget in the sun. She danced into the house, she flung herself into Babbitt's lap when he was reading, she crumpled his paper, and laughed at him when he adequately explained that he hated a crumpled newspaper as he hated a broken sales-contract. She was seventeen now. Her ambition was to be a cinema actress. She did not merely attend the showing of every "feature film"; she also read the motion-picture magazines; those extraordinary symptoms of the Age of Pep—monthlies and weeklies gorgeously illustrated with portraits of young women who had recently been man-cured girls, not very skillful man-

cure girls, and who, unless their every grimace had been arranged by a director, could not have acted in the Easter cantata of the General Methodist Church; magazines reporting, quite seriously, in "interviews" plastered with pictures of riding-breeches and California dungarees, the views on sculpture and international politics of blinky, beautiful suspiciously beautiful young men; outlining the plots of films about pure prostitutes, and kind-hearted train-robbers; and giving directions for making foot-blacks into Celebrated Scenario Authors overnight.

These authorities Eunice studied. She could, frequently, tell whether it was in November or December, 1932, that Mack Harker, the renowned screen cow-puncher and badman, began his public career, as chorus man, in "Oh, You Naughty Girlie."

On the wall of her room, her father reported, she had pinned up twenty-one photographs of actors. But the signed portrait of the most graceful of the movie heroes she carried in her young bosom.

Babbitt was bewildered by this worship of new gods, and he suspected that Eunice smoked cigarettes. He smelled the cigarette reek from up-stairs, and heard her giggling with Ted. He never inquired. The agreeable child dismayed him. Her thin and charming face was sharpened by lebbed hair; her skirts were shiny, her stockings were rolled, and as she flew after Ted, above the dressing silk were glimpses of soft knees which made Babbitt uneasy, and wretched that she should consider him old. Sometimes, in the veiled life of his dreams, when the fairy child came running to

Ted was motor-mad as Eunice was movie-mad. A thousand sarcastic refusals did not check his teasing for a car of his own. However lax he might be about early rising and the prosody of Vergil, he was tireless in tinkering. With three other boys he bought a rheumatic Ford chassid, built an amazing race-body out of tin and pine, went skidding round corners in the perilous craft, and sold it at a profit. Babbitt gave him a motor-cycle, and every Saturday afternoon, with seven sandwiches and a bottle of Coca-Cola in his pockets, and Eunice perched early on the rumble seat, he went roaring off to distant towns.

Usually Eunice and he were merely neighborhood chums, and quarreled with a wholesome and violent lack of delicacy; but now and then, after the color and scent of a dance, they were silent together and a little furtive, and Babbitt was worried.

Babbitt was an average father. He was affectionate, bullying, opinionated, ignorant, and rather joyful. Like most parents, he enjoyed the game of waiting, till the victim was clearly wrong, then virtuously punishing. He justified himself by croaking, "Well, Ted's mother spoils him. Got to be somebody who tells him what's what, and I'm elected the goat."

Because I try to bring him up to be a real, decent human being and not one of these sapsheads and lounge-lizards, of course, they all call me a grouch!"

Throughout, with the eternal human genius for arriving by the worst possible routes at surprising tolerable goals, Babbitt loved his son and warmed to his companionship and would have sacrificed everything for him—if he could have been sure of proper credit.

Ted was planning a party for his set in the Senior Class. Babbitt meant to be helpful and jolly about it. From his memory of high-school pleasures back in Catawba he suggested the nicest games: Going to Boston, and charade with stewpans for helmets, and word-games in which you were an Adjective or a Quality. When he was most enthusiastic he discovered that they weren't paying attention; they were only tolerating him. As for the party, it was a fixed and standardized as a Union Club Hop. There was to be dancing in the living-room, a noble collation in the dining-room, and in the hall two tables of bridge for what Ted called "The poor old dumb-bells, that you can't get to dance hardly more'n half the time."

Every breakfast was monopolized by conferences on the affair. No one listened to Babbitt's bulletins about the February weather or to his throat-clearing comments on the headlines. He said furiously, "If I may be permitted to interrupt young engrossing private conversation—Jub hear what I said!"

"Oh, don't be a spoiled baby! Ted and I have just as much right to talk as you have!" flared Mrs. Babbitt.

On the night of the party he was permitted to look on, when he was not helping Matilda with the Vecchia ice cream and the petits fours. He was deeply disgusted. Eight years ago, when Verona had given a high-school party, the children had been featureless gables. Now they were men and women of the world, very supercilious men and women; the boys condescended to Babbitt, they were evening-clothes, and with hauteur they accepted cigarettes from silver cases. Babbitt had heard stories of what the Athletic Club called "going-on" at young parties; of girls "parking" their corsets in the dressing-room, of "cuddling" and "petting," and a presumable increase in what was known as immorality. Tonight he believed the stories. These children seemed bold to him, and told. The girls wore misty chiffon, coral velvet, or cloth of gold, and around their dipping bobbed hair were shining wreaths. He had it, upon urgent and secret inquiry, that no corsets were known to be parked upstairs; but certainly these eager bodies were not stiff with steel. Their stockings were of lustrous silk, their slippers costly and unnatural; their lips carmined and their eyebrows penciled. They danced cheek to cheek with the boys, and Babbitt sickened with apprehension and unconscious envy.

COLLEEN'S FLAPPER QUEEN

"Flaming Youth" Establishes Her as Cleverest Portrayer of Jazz Heroines

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH]
NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—"She who flaps fast best," is the verdict of exhibitors in the East who are watching Colleen Moore in "Flaming Youth" coin money for them. The success of this picture is phenomenal, almost as much as it followed a "flap" long trail of mediocre and tawdry productions detailing the lives of us wild young people. And it is a success that marks definitely the course that First National will take in selecting future vehicles for Miss Moore.

"As long as you played sweet, misty young girls you were just one more leading woman," the exhibitors reason with her, "but since you have played Pat in 'Flaming Youth' you are a sensation. Don't be foolish and change from the type of part that has made you a star. And so First National is considering 'The Demi-Virgin' as her next vehicle. They have commissioned Mrs. Francis X. Ford to design clothes for her that will make all flappers in the country break down and sob with envy."

Who would have dreamed just that sort of glory for our little Colleen? I would as soon have nominated little Baby Peggy to play the part of the flapper. You can never tell though, what will happen in the film industry as long as there are people like Colleen. Suddenly recognized and acclaimed as a flapper, she is now being hailed as a star.

Who, for instance, do you suppose is the most popular leading woman appearing in pictures in the East? A few weeks ago when there was talk of a general shutdown of the studios and curtailing of production there were but four really big productions scheduled to be made right away. In everyone's mind was offered to Almas Rubens!

One of these productions is "The Flaming Youth," which is being made for First National. The other is "Cythera," which she will make for Paramount. The third is "The Flaming Youth," which she will make for First National. The fourth is "Cythera," which she will make for Paramount.

All this furor over Almas Rubens is being caused by the fact that she is a flapper. She is a flapper and she is a star. She is a flapper and she is a star. She is a flapper and she is a star.

Liquidation in December Corn Lower Prices

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Liquidation was on in December corn and while the market was slow in getting under way the market dropped rather sharply toward the last and all grades declined and failed to show much rallying power. The grain was within a fraction of the low point with wheat at 84¢ and corn at 40¢ and 41¢ to 42¢ while oats were unchanged to 30¢.

COL NEWS

By HOWARD C. KEGLEY

While all of the oil fields in the United States were picking a total of 2,683,000 barrels of petroleum per day during the week ending on the 1st inst., 74,650 barrels per day were producing 74,650 barrels per day. The twenty-two fields of the State showed a daily decline of 11,869 barrels for the week.

During that period California produced more oil than Oklahoma and Texas combined, their combined output being 73,750. Oklahoma produced 339,200 barrels and Texas produced 344,550 barrels. During the same period the output of California was greater than the combined output of the eastern United States, including Texas, Louisiana, Kansas, Arkansas, Montana and Wyoming. Together these fields only yielded 67,000 barrels per day.

A decrease of 103,100 barrels in the daily average production of oil in California is accounted for by the substantially all of the decrease of 115,250 barrels.

The average production of the Rocky Mountains was 1,336,450 barrels, as compared with 1,429,350 barrels, a decrease of 103,200 barrels.

Shell Well Completed
The Shell Company placed its Andrews No. 4, in the Signal Hill, on production yesterday morning from the 5097-foot level.

Although a gauged report on the yield of the producer was unavailable, Shell officials were confident they said that the well would produce perhaps from 1100 to 1500 barrels per day. The No. 11, one of two wells that have been drilled under the supervision of Ed H. Herwick in the northern extension of the Signal Hill field, was hauled out at 3 a.m. yesterday while awaiting the completion of the well.

The well flowed for a half-hour and ended up. The work of running in to clean out the hole was completed yesterday afternoon.

Program Completed
With the drilling in of its No. 9 well in the Santa Fe Springs field, a week ago, the Buckeye Union Oil Company completed its drilling program for 1923. Officials of the company reported that no further drilling is to be undertaken until after the first of next year. It is said. At present the Buckeye Union Oil Company has six wells producing in the Santa Fe Springs field.

Rescue Drilling
Drilling operations at the Dolomite-Synthetic's wildcat well in the Coyote Hills have been reported by the company. The well is being drilled to a depth of 4000 feet deep when drilling is suspended pending the arrival of a 4000 foot deep drill. Good showings of blue shale have been encountered. The well is being drilled to a depth of 4000 feet deep when drilling is suspended pending the arrival of a 4000 foot deep drill.

To Enter Torrance
The Belle of Montebello Oil Company expects to institute a drilling program in the Torrance field, according to officials of the company. The organization is said to be negotiating for acreage and is expected to start drilling operations as soon as possible.

Plan More Wells
The Russell Petroleum Company plans to drill two wells in the Fullerton district. The future, it is reported by officials of the company. Both wells will be located near production in semi-arrested territory. It is reported that the wells will be started as soon as possible, and will be followed by a large number of wells.

Wildcat Fishing
Catching trout in the Mahala Oil Company's wildcat well, a mile west of Prado in San Bernardino county, has given the drilling crew great trouble, officials of the company report, and drilling has been suspended pending the extraction of the pipe from the hole. The well is 4092 feet deep, and it has been found necessary to fish almost 4000 feet of casing, of which about 400 feet is still in the hole. The high wind of the past week has interrupted the work. It is reported that company officials expect operations to be resumed today.

Considerable gas has been encountered in this well, and from the start, drillers report, and good oil showings have also been encountered. It is said that the well is being drilled to a depth of 4000 feet deep when drilling is suspended pending the arrival of a 4000 foot deep drill.

Well Swabs Wet
The No. 11 in the Signal Hill field which was expected to go on production during the first of this week, swabbed wet while the crew was preparing for completion. It is reported. A leak in the casing was discovered to be the source of the water. The well had started a good flow, which was killed by mudding. The drillers are now engaged in work to stop the leak after which another attempt will be made to put the well on production.

prerogative, I am confronted with a choice of two evils and I feel that it would be a lesser evil for me to issue a complaint if a bona-fide demand is made for action rather than set myself up as an interpreter of the law and decide when and how it should be enforced," he said.

"Then the law ought to be repealed without any delay," the Chief shot out like a flash. "What's the use of making a goat of the police department?" he demanded. On motion of Commissioner Montgomery the matter will be sent to the City Council for action. In the meantime anyone looking for the proverbial "buck" will find it in the City Prosecutor's office. It was sent there yesterday by the Police Commission after the board struggled with all sorts of problems, most of which appeared bound up with sundry ordinances of the now well-known New Series.

LEGAL OPINIONS SOUGHT

When the confusion and clamor of the applications and applicants died out the following were found to have been forwarded to Mr. Friedlander's office for his legal opinion and action:

(1.) Police Commission's resolution, to be sent to the Council, asking immediate repeal of Ordinance 4685, New Series, which places every organization in the city in the class of law violators. The Council will be asked to attach the emergency clause to this resolution and at once repeal the ordinance. The ordinance, Mr. Friedlander told the following were found to have been forwarded to Mr. Friedlander's office for his legal opinion and action:

(2.) Mr. Friedlander was asked to devise some plan for cutting the red tape in the commission's business and install some method of handling clerical work by clerks. Secretary McKee in the past has the authority to issue ordinary dance permits, as provided by law, but since the advent of Rev. Dr. Montgomery and Mr. Birnbaum to the Police Commission the subject of dancing became a highly controversial one and has been receiving the personal attention of the Mayor and the Council. This action was brought about by Chief Vollmer's blunt attack on red tape in general.

DANCE PERMIT GRANTED

(3.) Mr. Friedlander's legal department will have to determine the status of the Nebraska Society's application for a dance permit. The Police Commission yesterday granted E. H. Hinsdale, president of the society, a permit for a social gathering and public dance tonight.

The situation in this particular case was so complicated that not even Mr. Friedlander himself could state off-hand what was what. The society will charge an admission. That makes it a public dance. If only Nebraskans and their guests dance, that makes it a purely social affair, but formal invitations

NEW BUS LINES APPROVED
Board of Public Utilities Acts Favorably on Run to Griffith Park Golf Links

The Board of Public Utilities yesterday approved of the plan of the Los Angeles Motor Bus Company and the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce under which the company on the 20th inst. will place twenty motor buses into service to give additional transportation facilities to the northwestern part of the city and extending to the Griffith Park golf links.

The municipal bus line to the golf links will automatically quit business and the city buses will be sold to the motor bus company, which is jointly operated by the Los Angeles Railway and Pacific Electric Railway companies.

Twelve motor buses will be placed in use over a line operating from Laurel Canyon to Sunset Boulevard to Vermont avenue, to Eighth street to Olive street, and eight buses will be operated from Los Feliz Boulevard to Hillhurst.

must be issued in writing. Anyone who will appear at the door and claim Nebraska for his home State can get in, but the absence of written invitations and indorsements on the back of the dance becomes a public dance. And if it is a public dance then the commission should have charged the Nebraska Society a fee of $20, but Mr. Hinsdale said the society did not make enough money on the dance to stand for the fee. Besides, some 400,000-odd members of State societies have been doing what they proposed to do, he said, and that was that.

The upshot of the matter was that the license was granted, no fee was collected, and the city-bus-burdened Mr. Friedlander was asked to give a legal opinion.

SANTA CLAUS ISSUE UP

Mr. Friedlander and his barristers will have to determine for the Police Commission if Paul D. Howse, the Electric Club's Santa Claus, can act in that capacity this year. Mr. Howse wrote to Councilman Gregory about the matter, fearing he would be arrested for several violations if he accepts the job. Mr. Gregory read the letter to the Council and the Council sent it to the Police Commission for action. The Police Commission almost lost this communication yesterday, but when it finally was brought to the surface the commission passed it along to Mr. Friedlander.

(4.) The Police Commission also would like to have Mr. Friedlander tell it all about Ordinance No. 41875. This instrument specifically states that all applications for permits to conduct games of skill and science—which brings memories of the ill-fated Ginnist-Grotto Circus—must be accompanied by a fee of $25 and that the permit should be advanced for ten days. Councilman Gregory heard about that a few days ago and asked the Council to inquire of the City Attorney whether the Police Commission was guilty of malfeasance of office in not collecting the fee. It developed yesterday that the commission, very properly, had been making an exception in the case of charity organizations. There was nothing about that in the ordinance. (6.) Dusty volumes in Mr. Friedlander's office may have to be examined to determine the

to Vermont, to Eighth, to Olive street. The two former city-owned buses will run from First and Vermont on a half-hourly schedule to the Griffith Park golf links.

The company plans to have thirty-two buses in operation over the new line by the middle of January. It had more planned at first to establish only the Sunset-Boulevard line now, but the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce asked that both lines be started at the same time, and this was finally agreed to by the company and approved by the Board of Public Utilities.

exact relation of skating to time. In the case of roller skating Mr. Friedlander appeared to be somewhat in doubt. The subject involved problems in law, morality or gravitation, but promised to do his best. The subject was a few more perfect. A permit was granted by the Police Commission to grant it a permit to run the skating rink near Lincoln Park until 1 o'clock New Year's eve.

It appears that Ordinance No. 31795, New Series, provides that skating may be indulged in from 10 a. m. to 10:45 p. m., no more and no less. The Police Commission was in doubt about its powers to extend the hour. So Mr. Friedlander asked a specialist.

"Why 10:45?" asked a specialist in the crowd. "I suppose it was reasoned that fifteen minutes are needed to remove the skates and an hour to get home, and under the cover of darkness, a volunteer a bewhiskered bystander."

WITH RESERVATION

Aside from referring things to Mr. Friedlander, the Police Commission granted a few applications for permits to conduct games of skill and science. A permit was granted the Sunshine Club to conduct a dance at 5409 Moneta avenue, and a few members of this club—which is an auxiliary of a charitable institution—are under 18 years of age. This being so, the commission at first doubted the advisability of granting the permit, but finally did with a provision that special caution be given the club and that the five juvenile members stay at home.

The Wilson Land Company did not get a permit to conduct a dance hall at 310 South Spring street. Harry A. Murray, for twenty years in the pool-room business, wanted to transfer his establishment to East Fifth street. "Too many there now," said Commissioner Birnbaum.

The matter was help up for a week. The Workers Comfort Club at Los Angeles Harbor was denied a dance permit. The East Side Mothers' Club was granted one. The Santa Claus applications were approved.

Then the commission adjourned. "Too much to call," said Commissioner Montgomery as he reached for a hat. "Have an appointment," called back Mr. Birnbaum.

Both will be back on the job, struggling with permits and such next Tuesday.

WILL UNITE
IN FIGHT ON BLUE LAWSStep Taken to Organize Forces at Business and Civic Gathering

Sixteen representatives of important business and civic organizations of Los Angeles met with Fred Niblo, president of the Motion-Picture Directors' Association, Monday night as a first step toward perfecting a permanent organization to oppose the blue laws advocates and the general tendency to regulate the private conduct of individuals.

This became known last night when it was announced by Mr. Niblo that another meeting will be conducted tomorrow and that some announcement of the organization and conduct will be taken at that time. The first meeting was at the home of a member of the Motion-Picture Directors' Association. The names of those who attended were not made public.

Tomorrow night another meeting will be conducted by the Wampas—the Western Motion-Picture Advertisers' Association—when details of the Wampas Frolic, a new definitely risky plan to run the skating rink near Lincoln Park until 1 o'clock New Year's eve.

JUGO-SLAVIA'S

enormous mineral riches of its soil, the tremendous agrarian production, and the export of its timber, the highest in Europe.

"The mineral wealth of Jugo-Slavia is enormous and if the land shall be used for park purposes," he said, "it would be difficult to calculate the interest which such a park would offer. But it can be said with certainty that it would be difficult to find in the whole world a more favorable opportunity of gaining wealth. The greater the amount of capital, the greater the profit would be. The greatest obstacle to the development of the line is the want of railways to connect the mines with the sea. When the line is completed, the master of the mining situation will be the man who can connect the mines with the sea."

Coal mines, iron mines and bauxite mines constitute the principal resources of the country. In dwelling upon these resources he referred only to those mines within sixty miles of the coast. The rich in coal, according to the Ambassador, the most important mines are in Bosnia, sixty miles from Spalato, the region with its two layers of coal, he said, but to exploit them a railway sixty miles long is needed. The Ambassador estimated for $3,000,000, and would pay large interest without the mine. The Ambassador estimated for $3,000,000, and would pay large interest without the mine.

"Italy, which has no coal and consumes at least 12,000,000 tons per annum, is very near to this coal region," the Ambassador continued. "Hence we can understand the importance of the Livno-Zurich railway. The line is now under construction. It will connect Italy with the coal fields of Bosnia. Labor in Jugo-Slavia is also very cheap. An immense business could be done in the coal fields. Almost all the countries bordering the Mediterranean have needs for coal. In Jugo-Slavia is enormous wealth."

Jugo-Slavia also has extensive mountains of iron, unexploited, according to her Ambassador. The ore, he declared, contains 63 per cent of pure iron. Other mines, with fortunes in iron, chrome, manganese, pyrites and other minerals are situated at Vares, Zelenica, Skopje, Voles and other Jugo-Slavia points.

"In order to exploit the mines of Jugo-Slavia," he continued, "a railway fifty-four miles in length and connecting Bihac in Bosnia with Knin in Dalmatia, is needed. To obtain permission to exploit the mines of Jugo-Slavia it would be necessary to obtain a concession from the government."

Ambassador Pavlich dwell also upon the golden opportunity afforded those who finance Jugo-Slavia's bauxite deposits, from which enormous quantities of alumina capital required to purchase the concessions and construct the necessary arterial railways was estimated at $1,500,000.

"It would be difficult to mention any mineral that is not to be found in the mountainous part of the kingdom," he said in conclusion. "Our mountains abound in iron, zinc, lead, manganese, chrome, pyrite, antimony, magnesia, mercury, gold, silver, asphalt, naphtha, cement and marble of the most different and beautiful varieties. Other sources of natural wealth are our immense forests, agricultural products, and breeding. The exploitation of a single one of these will earn fabulous profits."

As for future wars involving Jugo-Slavia, Ambassador Pavlich

the growth attained the largest of any European country. The appearance of an immense furnace. Weary men, bankers, merchants, city farmers and Mexican laborers, each with a shovel on his shoulder, trudged up and down the canyon trails, although the grimy skin on their way to another point of danger.

Everyone engaged in the fight took his duties in good part. The women of Burbank maintained a kitchen at the police station. The men, where ex-mine shafts were put to use as coffee urns. The prevailing danger was the fire. Sparks flew for hundreds of yards, setting new blazes behind the line of the fighters, and it was only by pulling the hills that many lives were saved.

Unless some fire-line breaks away during the night no danger is contemplated. The line along the ridge of Tuna Canyon is regarded as the danger point. The fire-fighters last night were held in the fire-break on the Tuna Canyon Ridge, and without a recurrence of the high winds of the last night, the fire would have been contained.

Numerous minor burns were reported yesterday by the fire fighters. The fire-fighters were very busy yesterday. The fire-fighters were very busy yesterday. The fire-fighters were very busy yesterday.

Chief of Police John Long and Fire Commissioner Davies were held in the fire-break on the Tuna Canyon Ridge, and without a recurrence of the high winds of the last night, the fire would have been contained.

A definite plan for the development of the entire tract is to be worked out at the earliest possible time. This work will be done under the supervision of the Architects' Association which has volunteered its services. The work of laying out walks and roadways and planting trees and shrubbery will begin at once, it was stated.

PALEOZOIC RUINS FOUND

In recent years the park has been the scene of much research work by scientists. The remains of many animals of the Paleozoic age have been found there, including those of 600 saber-toothed tigers, six imperial elephants and other giant mammals. Excavations are still in progress there and it is expected that many more important discoveries will result from this work. Virtually all of the animal remains found by scientists to be 5,000,000 years old, have been placed in museums.

Negotiations for the gift have been under way for many years. Mr. Hill worked more or less continually on the matter during his eight years as county counsel and because of his familiarity with the matter was asked to conclude the transaction on behalf of the county yesterday.

While he retired from active business five years ago, the problems of detecting crime and dealing with criminals still occupied his thoughts. His long experience with law-breakers had not developed any particular sympathy for this class of society and he was inclined to disapprove of the leniency shown criminals today. He suggested that the state acquire the old-fashioned whipping post and pillory would have a wholesome effect in checking the present crime wave, which he said is now at its height.

FOND OF SHOWS

Mr. Pinkerton was one of the most famous of theatrical "first nighters" and had told his friends many years, Louis O. Maclean, manager of "Zander," that he would attend the opening on Saturday night of the new theatre, Chicago, which was sold out for a reported consideration of $1,100,000. Out of respect for his passing, the two seats in the first row he would have occupied for the "Zander" opening will not be sold but draped in mourning, Maclean announced yesterday.

"Many an actor and actress will miss the 'Governor,'" said Maclean. "His passing will be a great blow to the theatrical profession. I predict his estate will reveal numerous actors' I.O.U.'s and each one will spell a hard-luck story and show how the 'Governor' put them on their feet with money and advice. Probably his closest friends in the theatrical business are George M. Cohan and Sam H. Harris. By a coincidence, Mr. Harris is on his way to Los Angeles where he will arrive here tomorrow."

THE SPANKING OF A FLAPPER

BY HARRY CAIRN

At the next table in the cafe where I dined last night sat a young sheik with plastered hair; with him was a flapper.

He made it plain to anyone with good ears that there is no proper foundation for her despair of flappers. Pa and ma may not be able to discipline her, but she can be disciplined. This young lounge lizard licked this one to a humble whisper.

It started when he invited her to go somewhere and she gave him a laughing reply to the effect that she didn't care much about going unless he had an automobile.

When I was a youngster a reply that would have left us devastated and heart-broken. We would have sneaked off home in the shadows and gone without lunches trying to save up money for a taxi.

This boy just laughed. "Well," he said, "if I can't entertain you without an automobile I can't see to seek some other kind of amusement."

Presently he spoke about as invitation that he had received to go somewhere to meet a movie star of great repute.

"Oh, that will be wonderful," said the girl, beaming.

"Yeh," he said dryly.

A horrible misgiving came into the girl's mind; she fussed with her dinner for a minute; then she said in a somewhat strained voice: "What do you think I ought to wear?"

"Oh, were you going, too?" he asked, with brutal good nature.

The girl winced. She fully gulped. "Why, . . .," she began.

After a while she looked up and said in a small and decidedly spanked tone of voice. "You know I was just kidding about that automobile. I just love to go somewhere with you and dance. It doesn't matter about the automobile."

The boy didn't say anything. He briskly assailed her stomach and heard him humming the jazz tune with the orchestra. There was a word in the song "Dearie." When he got to the end of the line he said "Dearie" at her with good-natured raillery.

She took advantage of the moment to get up and go to the parent table. "Mostly you like to when you and I just go around and have these suppers and dances?"

"She was so appealing that I felt sorry for her, but the cheerful young sheik wasn't moved. He just went on with the steak.

A pause.

"Don't you?"

"Yeh," he said, "I like the steak. The only trouble is you are not very good dancer."

The girl gave a stricken look and dropped her eyes to her plate. When she spoke it was to say in a hurt voice. "Why, I have always been considered a very good dancer."

"Yeh?" he said incredulously and then he added without a trace of rancor: "Well, you are a dancer when we get up on a dance floor. It isn't so much how you are considered by your loving friends as how well you can dance."

At this she looked the count. She seemed to recognize the fact that the situation called for silence—and a lot of it.

GRAND OLD NAMES

Telephoning to a neighbor, Memphis woman, proved of the fact that she was a grandmother, and "It's a girl, and her name is Mary Ann."

Isn't that a grand old name! The mother's name is Mary and the grandmother's name is Ann. The young mother might be called her daughter's name, Mary Ann, or something else just as daring, but she didn't.

Doubtless the whole lot of names had been washed and scrubbed before Mary Ann came into the world. The mother mind had been ruled backward over the names of sacred and secular lives of the Marys and the Anns whose faith and works have scintillated through the ages like jewels in the crown of the mother church and loving devotion to her own mother, whose name is Ann.

What could be more appropriate than, then, to call this new little humanity's garden Mary Ann? Some of us still have a fondness for old-fashioned names, and to those of us who do there is a distinctive beauty and evenness clinging around old-fashioned names.

May this little Mary Ann and the wee bits of humanity that she and the grand old names bring to a womanhood that will be as even and refining as old-fashioned names in an old-fashioned garden.—(The Philadelphia Commercial-Appeal)

FIRST OIL TRIAL SET FOR TODAY

Angelus Case to be Heard by Eastern Judge

Result of Drive to Rid City of Fake Promoters

Venue of Sixty Called for Selection of Jury

The first of a long series of cases, involving use of the mails in an alleged scheme to defraud in the promotion of oil corporations in Southern California, will be called before United States District Judge J. Whitaker Thompson of Philadelphia, Pa., in Judge Bledsoe's department, this morning. Judge Thompson has been sent to the Pacific Coast by Atty.-Gen. Daugherty to clean up the situation here.

The campaign for the prosecution of corporations and individuals, began last summer when Asst. Atty.-Gen. David Y. Cahill came to Los Angeles and began his investigation. This was in August. A corps of experienced counsels of the Department of Justice have been here ever since, going through the books of suspected corporations.

MANY INDICTED

Open house has been maintained by Atty.-Gen. Nicholas and Norcor for the past three months, where hundreds of persons who said they had been robbed of their money gave testimony.

As a result of the inquiry several corporations, alleged to be dealing in either local or Texas oil prospects, and about thirty individuals have been indicted by the Federal grand jury. Testimony still is being given.

The opening case of the government involves the Great Ansel Oil and Land Company, the defendants being Martin J. Cullen, Robert C. Dennison, Bernard T. Cullen and Thomas F. King.

Following their indictment all were admitted to bail in sums ranging from $2500 to $5000, but later on the bail was increased. The two Cullens are still in the county jail. Dennison and King succeeded in raising the increased bond.

OPERATIONS SHOWN

The defendants had quarters in suites 121-23 Higgins Building, and operated in the Antelope Valley section of Lancaster. They purchased 1120 acres of land from the Southern Pacific Railway Company at $2.35 an acre, according to government assertions, a large part of which they disposed of at from $100 to $400 an acre. It is estimated by the government that the company received $147,000. The prosecution states the assertion was made that the area was oil-bearing, and it was on this basis that investments were made by the most of the alleged victims, although there is no record that oil ever was found. One well was sunk in the vicinity of Redman, but it was a dry hole; another at Canajo, and a third at Signal Hill, but no oil was found. The Antelope Valley land is desert, but it is asserted that the promoters made on the statement of the promoters that it was good for agricultural purposes in addition to oil.

It is expected that the trial will be held in the Antelope Valley section of Lancaster.

HOBSON AND SEARCHERS FOUND SAFE

Hero of Spanish War Sought Boys Believed Lost in Mountains

Anxiety over the safety of Capt. Richmond P. Hobson of Spanish War fame, his brother, Maj. J. S. Hobson, and Capt. Jesse Hunter, investigator for the District Attorney's office, was relieved yesterday afternoon, when it was learned that they were none the worse for their hazardous expedition into the storm-swept Sierra Madre Mountains, where they had gone in search of Richmond Hobson, Jr., and James Hunter. The two boys, each 15 years of age, had been thought lost on a hike into the mountains, but returned a few hours after the searching expedition set forth.

Mrs. Hobson, wife of the Span- ish-American War hero, and a nationally known prohibition crusader, said she received a telephone report from Maj. Hobson, her brother-in-law, from Wildwood. Maj. Hobson, she said, informed her he had found a note at Hansen's Camp telling of the boys' safe arrival home. He said that Capt. Hobson and Capt. Hunter were further back in the mountains and that he would set out at once to bring them in.

Richmond Hobson, Jr., and James Hunter, the sons of Capt. Hobson and Capt. Hunter, respectively, reached home late Sunday night from a fifty-mile hike through the mountains. Aside from bruises from flying stones they were unhurt. A few hours before their arrival the searching party went into the region made dangerous by the high wind and falling trees.

Telephone communications in the mountains have been temporarily put out of commission by the windstorm. Maj. Hobson finally got a call through from Wildwood. The party is expected back early today.

Trial Date Set for Accused in Chapman Death

Jack Ferdinand, John Sears and John Gereg, indicted by the county grand jury the 10th, for the murder of Charles A. Chapman, entered pleas of not guilty when they were brought before Judge Avery yesterday. Their trial was set for January 15.

Chapman met his death at the hands of bandits November 27, last, on South Park avenue near Stau- fen avenue. Ferdinand was first indicted with Harold Fields and L. R. Robertson for the murder, but the latter two were cleared of the charge following a thorough investigation of the slaying by the District Attorney's office. Sears and Gereg were taken into custody the day after the fatal hold-up, and the former is said to have confessed that it was he and Gereg who accompanied Ferdinand the night Chapman was slain.

variable result in patients suffering from advanced stages of the disease. In both cases, of course, after the cure the patient has to avoid undue stress and strain, but practically the remainder of his life.

So far there has been discussion of no magic remedy for the cure of tuberculosis. There have been reports from time to time of serums or vaccines, but as yet nothing has stood the test of time. Undoubtedly, if the research workers in tuberculosis are not hampered, they will discover a curative which, used in conjunction with other hygienic measures, will markedly lessen the time it takes to cure the disease.

At the present time, patients with tuberculosis have to realize that healing comes only after a long period of proper care. From the time a person is diagnosed as a case of tuberculosis, the physician who has specialized in that disease, tuberculosis, is a specialist.

"Specialists," who advertise in the daily papers and otherwise reach the layman, are not to be chosen, for reputable physicians do not advertise. "Diploma" graduates do advertise.

Next week I will tell you a little more about care of tuberculosis. I will tell you how to live, how to eat, how to rest, how to exercise, how to get the most out of your life, how to get the most out of your money, how to get the most out of your health.

ARID SOULS

Havana Visitor Declares
Thirsty Flock to Florida,
Then to Cuba

That portion of the Southland in close proximity to Tijuana may be regarded by many as the most desirable residential section in the United States, but it has nothing on Key West.

Havana is so near the Florida city that, according to M. F. Casuso, Havana wholesale grocer, who is at the Clark Hotel, the boats each morning unload a cargo of thirty Key Westers who proceed to enjoy Cuban refreshment and then take the afternoon boat back home if they are able to reach the place of embarkation.

"It is a matter of not a little education to the Cubans to be at the boat landing and watch these thirsty souls," it is said. "I am mindfully to the nearest liquor emporium," said Mr. Casuso. "And if one happens to be at the wharf shortly before the afternoon boat is ready to sail he is treated to a sight of a group of Americans in various states of mellowness."

"I traveled to Los Angeles through the Panama Canal on a boat from New York, carrying about 200 passengers from that city. The moment it touched Havana, I believe every one of those passengers made a bee-line for a saloon and they brought enough stuff back with them to keep them happy for the remainder of the voyage."

Mr. Casuso says prohibition in the United States increased materially the prosperity of Havana. "Our tourist trade has become one of the most important of our activities," he said. "Liquor boats may be seen coming and going in the harbor at any hour of the day."

It is asserted by prohibition agents that Brunner has made a number of trips to San Francisco, bringing large quantities of the Scotch whisky they make over night in the Bay City, which he has disposed of to drinkers who are willing to take a chance with their lives.

GRAHAM'S

HARDWATER SOAP

Surely, the mode puts a premium on self-denial these days! Those of us who like candy and sugar in our tea never found it as hard to place ourselves in a new frock and rest content with our reflection. The absolutely straight dress, like No. 7244, is undoubtedly the smartest. But was betide the woman who tries to wear it without first scrutinizing herself from all angles, and coming to the conclusion that she is really slender—preferably even thin. Made in one of the light wool materials, such as chambray, in a moccasin-brown, the dress sketched may be part of a three-piece costume if one wears over it a straight coat, fur-collared and cuffed, making the frock of the frock of the coat material. It is just as good made all in one fabric, however.

But for the lady with extra inches, No. 7302 is much better. The pleats give it room at the side; there is fullness in the cut of the blouse, both at the sides and at the back, and the belt across the back is much better for the average figure than the absolutely flat, unbelted line.

RADIOLAND GETS FAIRY MESSAGE

Queen Titania Broadcasts Joy to Kiddies

Program of "The Times" is Medley of Glee

Musical Artists Provide Classical Thrills

BY K. G. ORMISTON
After a day of silence, during which the operating room of The Times radio station was the scene of great activity, the set was given a test late in the afternoon, and came on the air as usual at 5:45 p.m., with the children's program.

It was well that the station was in operation, for the kindly Sandman made his regular Tuesday evening visit. When it was noted that little Queen Titania was missing, a frantic search was made for her. She was finally discovered perched upon the microphone, and was as small as the smallest dolls which are displayed in the Christmas shop windows.

While the Sandman and Uncle John watched and marveled, she grew in size, and as they lifted her from her place on the microphone housing to the floor, she became her own normal size, and delighted the earth children with the message which she brought from Fairyland. The Sandman told his story of happiness which he had promised last Tuesday evening. A grown-up guest in the studio who was introduced, the fairies, entertained with two fine songs. He was John P. Ogle, better known as "Barney Google."

UNCLE JOHN SLUMBERS
Uncle John insisted upon peeking into the Sandman's bag of dreams, and fell asleep. The operator had to buzz several times to wake him up.

After the silent half-hour following the bedtime broadcast, KJL came on at 8 o'clock with a program arranged by the Whittier Chamber of Commerce.

The Whittier Men's Chorus, who are now in their fourth season and have been an important feature of the musical life of Whittier, were heard in three fine songs. They sang together in splendid harmony, the voices blending with a resultant quality which broadcasted with pleasing effect. Their program consisted of "The Viking Song," by Taylor; "Who is Sylvia," by Schubert, and "On the Sea," by Buck.

Mrs. R. R. Woodward, contralto, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Williams, was heard in two charming solos, "The Great Awakening," by Kramer, and "To the Sun," by Curran.

PROGRAM VARIED
C. H. Hunter rose to the occasion with his trombone, playing "The Rosary" and "Mother Machree," and little Pauline Holt gave two readings, one in Italian dialect "Da Grata Baseball."

Dorothy Sutherland, soprano, entertained with a solo, singing "Land of the Sky Blue Water," with pleasing effect. W. G. Alexander, cellist, was heard in two solos, playing with an excellent tone and interpretation.

A Herold de Grosse, baritone, possessed of a fine voice of rich tonal qualities, sang several highly enjoyable numbers.

Oil and Realty Promoter, Client of Broker, Charged With Embezzlement, First to Testify

The trial of A. W. Coote, stock broker, charged in seven counts with embezzlement, began yesterday afternoon before Superior Judge Hardy with the testimony of E. A. Parkford, local oil producer and real estate operator, that he had placed an order for 1000 shares of oil stock with Coote and had paid for but not received delivery of the stock.

A. L. Abraham, general manager for the Parkford interests, and his secretary, Miss May Wainwright, also were called by the prosecution during the afternoon.

During the morning session scores of veniremen were examined by the prosecution and defense attorneys and just before the noon adjournment the jury was completed. A thirteen jurymen were then examined and seated. No witnesses were called during the morning.

DIVERTING FUNDS CHARGED
Dep. Dist. Atty. Tracy Becker opened the afternoon session with a brief address to the jury. He stated that the prosecution will attempt to show that Coote, knowing that he was unable to continue in business, had accepted money from clients and then used that money to pay others who had loaned him large sums.

Becker declared that when Coote failed his books showed that less than a week before the failure was announced he accepted money from his clients and at once paid it out on his own accounts instead of investing it as ordered by the persons who gave him the money.

As the first witness for the State, Parkford testified that he had employed Coote to purchase in the open market 1000 shares of oil stock. He testified that he had authorized payment of various sums to Coote and had never been able to secure delivery of the stock or return of his money.

Abraham was the second witness called by the prosecution. He identified a number of checks, and receipts which passed between Coote and his own during the supposed purchase of the oil stock. He stated that he had signed all of the checks and had sent them to Coote's office. He declared that the stock was never delivered.

DEALINGS DESCRIBED
Miss Wainwright testified that she carried the last check from the Parkford office to the Coote office and gave it to a Mr. Edwards there and demanded delivery of the stock. She testified that she was told that the stock would be delivered at a later date and then after some discussion with Mr. Edwards secured a receipt for the check which she had delivered. Miss Wainwright and Mr. Abraham will be cross-examined by the defense today.

A. W. Coote was indicted by the grand jury on seven counts of embezzlement after his stock brokerage had failed for about $2,000,000 last June. At the time it was discovered that he had about 4000

FIRE DEATH OF JACOBS ACCIDENTAL

Flames Believed Started by Man's Pipe or Candle While Asleep

The death of Austin E. Jacobs, 47 years of age, who was burned in a fire at his home at 1041 West Eighty-seventh street, Monday night, was due to an accident, Deputy Sheriff Bright and Hunter concluded yesterday after an investigation.

The charred body of the victim was found in the ruins of the house yesterday morning. Neighbors reported that about twenty minutes before flames swept the house they heard voices raised as if in anger.

The investigation by the deputies, however, disclosed that Jacobs was sitting in his chair smoking a pipe and that he had placed a candle on a table near by. It is believed that he either fell asleep or that the pipe fell to the floor, causing the fire, or that the candle burned down and started the blaze.

The pipe was found near the body. Among the victim's effects was found $84.40, shattering the theory that he may have been killed for robbery and the house set afire. No marks of violence could be found on the body.

ENTERTAINMENT PLANNED
World War veterans are invited to an entertainment to be given tomorrow evening at the Disabled Veterans' Hall, 246 South Hill street, by the Ukulele Club of Pasadena, composed of eight girls from that city. Among the artists who will appear will be Belle Molenaar, Eva Littlejohn, Elva Dillthey and Estelle Dillthey. All American Legion members are invited.

CITY'S HOSPITALS PRAISED

Superintendent of Schools Lauds Nurses in Address at Cornerstone Laying of New Clubhouse

"Being ill in a Los Angeles hospital today is like being sick in heaven with ministering angels at one's bedside," said Mrs. Susan M. Dorsey, Superintendent of Schools, in an address given yesterday before 200 members of the Los Angeles Nurses' Club, at the cornerstone laying ceremonies of their $25,000 clubhouse at Third and Lucas streets.

In the copper box, laid into the corner-stone by Miss Agnes G. Talcott, chief nurse of the Los Angeles city health department and cemented down by John J. Fraunfelder, architect of the building, was placed a copy of the "Hospital and Nurses' Review," a copy of the Los Angeles Times, a copy of the deed to the old lot on Eighteenth street, and a list of the officers and members of the club.

NURSES LAUDED
Following invocation by Rev. Francis Conaty, a brief review of the history of the Nurses' Club was given by Miss Lillian Simpson of the county health department and Laura Mitchell, superintendent of the Pacific Hospital.

Speaking for John McGroarty, who was scheduled to speak but who was unable to be present, Dr. R. B. Von KleinSmid, president of the club, said:

"The fact that nursing has become a profession is significant. It is an evidence of the growth of goodness and tenderness and shows that, in spite of all apparent injustice and wrong, there is still an element of society ready to dedicate body, mind and soul to the assuaging of the world's sorrow."

Mrs. Henry Dietrich, president of the Nurses' Club, said an effort will be made to make of the new club building a genuine home for the members, a home from which the spirit of gladness will constantly be radiated.

"Music, dancing and the study of all that is new in science and best in art will be included in the features of our new home," said the speaker.

"However, above all, we shall continue to work for true success—and success means the development to the utmost of one's capacities for service."

Let the remembrance in the hands of friends in time for Christmas. The last week witnessed the big rush when it seems that everybody had waited until the last minute.

DEGNAN WILL TESTIFY TODAY

Manufacturer to Tell His Story in Attack Case

Spectacular Testimony in Bitter Court Fray

Actress Weeps During Tale of Drinking Party

A barrage of testimony fired by both defense and State with the intention of impeaching testimony given previously by witnesses on both sides and a heated legal battle over the admissibility of evidence, which, the State contended, amounted to setting up a plea of insanity for the defendant, featured yesterday's sessions of the trial of Michael Degnan, well-to-do manufacturer, charged with attacking Eloise Clement, lecturer and actress, July 26, last. Degnan will take the stand today.

Counsel for the defense, led by Le Compte Davis, spent the greater portion of the afternoon in examining witnesses whose testimony contradicted that given by Miss Clement last week.

The State, represented by Dep. Dist. Atty. Burke, retaliated by showing apparent discrepancies in the evidence submitted as compared with statements made by witnesses were said to have given to investigators for the District Attorney's office shortly after the asserted attack on Miss Clement occurred.

The session of the day, however, came during the examination of Dr. M. J. Davis, called to the stand by the defense. He testified he had known Degnan for several years, and had had the opportunity to study the mental condition of the man since the death of Mrs. Degnan two years ago.

TESTIMONY TO GRIEF

"I believe I can say my most conscientiously that he (Degnan) was the most grief-stricken man I have ever seen," Dr. Davis stated.

"Will you describe for the jury the mental condition of Mr. Degnan since that time?" Attorney Davis asked.

Dep. Dist. Atty. Burke was on his feet in an instant.

"Am I to understand," he exclaimed, "that you are going to offer insanity as a defense in this case?" Facing the court, the prosecutor then asked the doctor, under objection to the question, declaring that on no other ground could the query be construed as relevant.

Attorney Davis denied such was his intention, asserting, the defendant had already entered a plea of not guilty to the charge.

Judge Conklin held, however, that it was his opinion that a plea of insanity should not be construed otherwise than one designed to bring forth a plea of insanity and on that showing only, he said, could he overrule the objection.

Atty. Davis did not care to pursue the examination in that direction and the entire matter was ordered stricken from the record.

Further questioning of the witness brought forth the statement that he had seen Miss Clement on two occasions, both subsequent to May 28, last. Miss Clement testified last week that she had talked with Dr. Davis some time early in May or late in April regarding a proposed research trip to Mexico.

M. A. Milbach, Degnan's business associate, said he had seen Miss Clement on two different occasions in Degnan's office in the last time within three days prior to the date of the alleged attack.

His testimony and that of several other witnesses in the case, it was said, the defense intended to rest today with the completion of testimony of Degnan, who will take the stand this morning in his own behalf.

peaks. They are wholly, so we contend, political in character, related to a political issue, were circulated during a political campaign, and none other.

DRAWS ON DECISIONS

The brief cited many court decisions to sustain Mr. Mines' contention that the city officials who have made expenditures from public funds in payment of illegal claims against the city (in this case) may maintain an action to compel such officials to pay the amount of such illegal expenditures out of their own pockets. In this case, the claims listed by Mr. Mines and admitted by the Public Service Commission as having been authorized by the commission total $12,450 and this amount must be repaid to the city treasury by the Public Service Commissioners from their private funds if the court rules in support of Mr. Mines' contention. While the campaign expenditures of the commission were much more than $12,450, Mr. Mines and his attorney selected claims which were typical of the various forms of political campaigning done by the Power Bureau in support of the $35,000,000 power bond issue.

ALL FUNDS PUBLIC

"The power revenue fund consists of public funds of the municipality, the same as the moneys standing to the credit of any other public fund. They are all public funds, and may be paid out pursuant to law, and not otherwise. The responsibility of a public officer to account for public funds in his hands is precisely the same whether the moneys are derived from general taxation, special assessment, any form of license tax or the operation of publicly owned utilities. Unless we mistake, the contrary position will not be taken by counsel for defendants.

And in the second instance, that if these claims were illegal and unenforceable, and consequently the amount unavowed and unauthorized, that there would be, according to the amount of funds illegally disbursed, a corresponding increase in taxation, and for each fiscal year there is either a deficit or a surplus in the power revenue fund. If a deficit, such deficiency must be made up from some other municipal fund.

"If, however, there is a surplus in the power revenue fund at the end of the fiscal year, the Council may by ordinance direct said surplus moneys or part thereof to be transferred to the reserve fund. In making up the budget for the succeeding year the amount of the surplus in the power revenue fund anticipated municipal income from license tax, delinquent tax and operation of public utilities, deducted from estimated municipal expenditures of the ensuing year, would insure the amount necessary to be raised by general taxation. Under the charter surplus moneys in the power revenue fund might or might not be allowed to accumulate, as the judgment of the Council dictated. Be this as it

NOVEL SHIP LABELS FILED

One Drifts in Harbor During Storm; Other is Found With Only Captain on Board

Rescue of an unmanned ship in Los Angeles Harbor during the storm the 1st inst. and rescue of another with only her captain aboard, are brought to light by a novel suit filed against the ships yesterday by three men. These make six ships labeled here in the past few days.

The rescued ships are the William G. Irwin and the motorship Sequoia. The rescuers, as cited in the label, are Walter Brooks, assisted by Orman L. Martin, and Edward Miller, all of San Pedro.

The papers were served on the ships yesterday by Al Minick, deputy United States marshal. No sum was stipulated.

DRIFTING IN HARBOR

According to John Monaghan, proctor for the libellants, the William G. Irwin was discovered drifting in the outer harbor during the storm, eventually colliding with the Sequoia, whose anchor also was torn loose and the two together were drifting toward ruin on the rocky breakwater, and later, each other badly.

Mr. Brooks, the libel asserts, sent in a call for a tug, meanwhile going about the William G. Irwin, finding no one aboard, and only the eral other witnesses was aimed at the ship. Miss Clement testified called on Degnan only once between July 10 and July 20, and that she had seen him only once, on July 20, at the La Jolla hotel, where he was present at the time.

The testimony of both Dames and Moore, the latter the operator of a saloon in the city, who told of a visit paid his barroom May 19 by Miss Clement, and that she had been drinking, was contradicted by Dep. Dist. Atty. Burke to the effect that they were said to have given the District Attorney's investigators.

Throughout the trial both sides have sought to lay the foundation for the impeachment of testimony by comparing the stories told to the witness stand with the statements made by the witnesses in their own behalf.

There is a possibility the case may go to the jury tomorrow, it was said, the defense intending to rest today with the completion of testimony of Degnan, who will take the stand this morning in his own behalf.

CITY HALL SITE BONDS TO BE SOLD

Council Takes First Step Toward Erection of New $5,000,000 Edifice

The City Council yesterday took the first step necessary to sell, probably next month, $5,000,000 in bonds authorized by the voters at the June 5 city election for the purchase of the site of the new $5,000,000 city hall.

Some of the land in the site, which is bounded by First street, the new Spring street to be opened north to Sunset Boulevard from First street, Temple street, and Main street, is already owned by the city, these municipally owned properties including the street area and the Temple and Bulwark buildings.

But the rest of the land must be condemned and purchased at the prices fixed by the court in the condemnation awards. These will be handed down in about nine months, and Assistant City Attorney Whitehead told the Council yesterday that it was necessary that the $5,000,000 bond money be in the city treasury as soon as possible so that the deeds can be obtained at once after the awards are made.

During the nine months, while the condemnation cases are in the courts, the city will hold its architectural competition, select the architect and order him to have all plans completed so that the work of building the new City Hall can begin as soon as the site is cleared of existing buildings.

The two principal buildings to be condemned are the International Bank Building and the office building at the northeast corner of First and Spring streets.

WOMAN'S INJURY BY AUTO MAY BE FATAL

MRS. MARY ILLIF WAS RUN DOWN ON BOULEVARD BY CAR

Probably fatal injuries were suffered last night by Mrs. Mary Illif, 73 years of age, of 1052 North Serrano street, when she was struck by an automobile at Serrano street and Santa Monica Boulevard. She has a probable fractured skull, a broken arm, concussion of the brain, and many bruises, according to Dr. Dodge of the Receiving Hospital.

Police say the car that struck her was driven by S. E. Howell of 6132 Romaine street. Mrs. Illif is the widow of Rev. T. C. Illif, former Methodist pastor of Salt Lake City.

Realty Firm Will Erect $500,000 Building on Gladys and Seventh Streets

Real-estate and building deals announced yesterday include the leasing of the southeast corner of Seventh and Gladys streets to the Business District Development Company for ninety-nine years at an aggregate rental in excess of $55,000. It is the purpose of the real-estate firm to erect a class A building on the corner within three or four months to cost approximately $500,000. The property has a frontage of 102 feet on Seventh street and 102 feet on Gladys, and is owned by Nellie B. and William M. McGee.

Arthur Bennett is planning the erection of a $150,000 two-story theater and office building at Ingewood on Market street, north of Queen street. It is the purpose of the Bennett company to erect a class B building on the corner within three or four months to cost approximately $150,000. The property has a frontage of 102 feet on Market street and 102 feet on Queen, and is owned by Nellie B. and William M. McGee.

Redondo Given Gas Price Cut by Commission

Informal settlement of a gas rate question between the Southern California Gas Company and consumers of the Redondo district has been effected through the office of the State Railroad Commission. Reductions agreed upon by all concerned are said to be due to the discovery of a natural gas in the nearby Redondo-Torrance oil fields and to the general development of business in the district. The basic reduction is from $1.25 to $1 per thousand cubic feet for the first 5000, with a graduated scale to $1.15 per thousand for all over 50,000. The investigation was made by Engineer Maser of the Railroad Commission.

The Commission has granted an extension of time to March 14, 1924, to the Santa Fe and Los Angeles Harbor Railway to construct a line between Los Angeles, Los Angeles Harbor and El Segundo and in the meantime to maintain a temporary track at grade across the Ingewood-Redondo road.

COUNCIL WILL HEAR PROTESTS ON PARK

Protests against the acquisition of land in the Arroyo Seco for park purposes will be heard by the City Council on the 13th inst. The park is to be known as Victory Park and is sponsored by the American Legion and other patriotic organizations. But nine protests were received by the Council from property owners in the acquisition district which will pay for the ten acres of land required for the park.
